TRANSLATION: (by Steve Nickolas)

My hair is flaming to the sky
My body seems to be ablaze

Oh no, why are things turning out this way ?

I am going to be really angry now.

When I'm in love and heartbroken
Though I might want to have sweet dreams
They won't allow it, it's all their fault !

After all, I have to do this, right ?
With these two hands I will beat - smash this evil to bits
Indeed, until then, I must keep going
Awaken, pale warrior !

However bad a person becomes
If I like you, I'll try to believe.

Taking advantage of that
Is something that must not be done !

Anytime at all, I want to protect you.
For you I will go rushing ahead
Love, by itself, isn't just energy

Come on, we have to do this, right ?
We'll show them a girl's pure heart !
Whatever, whenever, we must keep going.
Vow in your heart, warrior of love !

Come on, we have to do this, right ?
With these hands we can beat - smash this evil to bits
Indeed, until then, we must keep going
Awaken, warrior of love !
