"Coconut"

Every day, down by the water, a girl leaves her bamboo hut

Climbing up a ladder to a palm tree for a coconut

Oh---coconut, oh---coconut

So I went a little bit closer, looking up the tree

And I asked if she would be willing to pick one for me

Oh---coconut, oh---coconut

Well, she said that I was a bad boy, and don't give me bother

And that she was only allowed to pick for her father

Oh---coconut, oh---coconut

But next day, I was a lot wiser, I went up the tree

And after she had climbed up the ladder

I kicked it down you see!

Oh---coconut, oh---coconut

Oh---coconut, oh---coconut

(Repeat and fade)
