(Intro):

It takes two - it takes two

(Chorus A:)

It takes two to tango

For dancing, romancing, or making love

It takes two to tango

It's written up in heaven above

One - as a single - solo - unique

A game of solitaire - as in privacy

Like singular - mystique

Or first - as in winner - no partner - no crime

To be one in a million - or just one of a kind

But I know, for I've been to that place

Where you're singled out from the human race

And your body tells you it needs to hide

That road can lead you to suicide

(Chorus B):

It takes two to tango...

Let's blame it on the heavens above

Three - as in trinity - a cosy 'menage a trois'

Or a triangle of intrigue

With that certain je ne sais quoi'

Or just safety in numbers- from orgy to fashion

But three is a crowd - no matter what the action

For I know, I've been to that place

Where the single soul has a triple face

And your jealous heart will try to push it even further

Your mind can drift as far as murder

(Chorus C:)

It takes two to tango...

It's written up in heaven above

For dancing, romancing, or making love

Let's blame it on the heavens above

It takes two to tango
For dancing, romancing, or making love
It takes two to tango
It's written up in heaven above
Two to tango (tango)
Two to tango (tango)
Let's do the tango, and blame it on the heavens above
Let's blame it on the heavens above
