A little girl with very long plaits
about 14 years old and rather cute
But if she fell on her little bottom you can be sure that she cried

But then one day she meets the mystic and the cold night of the Universe She becomes a hero, yes a heroine and as a friend she gets a cat

A fate that she really can't understand and she doesn't know how it will end

about 14 years old and rather cute
who now gets to fight against the lackeys of evil How will it end, how will it end?
It's only the stars who knows How it will end, how it will end.
