"Another Disaster"

Every day another page gets printed
A picture taken through a dirty lens
It's been fun but maybe now it's over
The candles melting fast at both ends
But there's a road with no signs
And I'm going soon
It's a wonder just how many people
Thought the earth was easy to defend
But in the poison wind we'll
Breathe much different
Watch the enemy become the friend
Chorus
It's another disaster
It's the devil with laughter
All the faces in plaster
Everything's going faster
It's another disaster
Only dreams and water dance below us
Shining up against the walls of stone
Find another picture lost in wreckage
As broken pieces find their Way back home
Chorus
