pathetic sympathies
left for the bloody at heart everything fades to shit everything tears me apart caustic insecurities
surface above the withheld every time I need
everything I want
aesthetic disguises
underlying doubts
my direction dies
everything's right up in your face everything's right up in front
push me against the wall
but still you can't make me

fall
you can't make me
separate your mouth
scrape away
prosthetic misery
idiosyncratic
pushing me to never
hold my breath
everything's right up in your face
you can't make me
separate your mouth
I don't like you at all!
