"Run Away From Me"

Now that I've made it clear,
The water has all but overflowed.
Always make the time for you,
But you were never there for... ME!

We all want to run away,
But I think that I will stay.

So much better...
Without all of this shit in my life.
Take me for who I am
And you will not lose... ME!

We all want to run away,
But I think that I will stay.

How could you run away?
Leave me with this being of myself.
How could you run away?
I guess I will have to rely on... ME!

We all want to run away,
But I think that I will stay.
There has got to be a way,
For us all to live today!

Now that I've made it clear
The water has all but overflowed
Always make the time for you
But you were never there...
for..
me.
