you know i'm not a morning person never said i was leaving i wasn't sure until this morning split screen apartment where you still lie there sleeping keep feeding our cat face he's the one who really needs you, baby will you really miss me will you really think about me yeah i'd like to think so but as they say i'm always dreaming let's look at the town i'm leaving tall buildings & offices and they're so full of memories, baby [CHORUS]
now i really don't care dying to get the sun in my hair yeah, i really don't care that's i'm here, you'll still there
"cause i'm gonna breathe the country air
yeah, i really don't care
but it's okay
i've been driving for ages your tapes are starting to bore me well i think should stop now i'm not sure if i should call you split screen apartment
where you have seen my letter well i know it's not phoenix but the scenery's getting better, baby [CHORUS] x2
