English translation

There's a song we've forgotten about
in this completely changed world.
It drifts, riding on the winds and crawling on the dwells the burning hopes
of proud warriors.
From today onwards we create our own history.
You Saints who move towards the time of your journey,
no one can stop you now.*
Love Fighter, can you hear
our voices
even inside this darkness that time has buried?
Love Fighter, as you're encased within the universe
the stars will guide you. Greatest Stars Way.
Embrace everyone's love in your heart
as you soar up high and faraway.*Repeat (x2)
Love Fighter
Love Fighter Ah~
... ..
