

Melanie Horsnell"Birds"

Visit "Birds" on MotoLyrics.com

If all the birds could fly right now
As high as me somehow
They could see all the things I've been dreaming of These wings of mine flutter inside
They shimmy and they glide
Treking forth crack the shell from this clockwork life

You should see what I can see
You should go where I can go
You should know what I know
Oh oh oh ladida oh, ooh oh oh

Yesterday I thought I saw the darkest clouds
The rain, the hail, the storm, the gale
Kept belting me round
But even from the darkest clouds
The sun came out
lada dadada

You should see what I can see
You should go where I can go
You should know what I know
Oh oh oh ladida oh, ooh oh oh

Yesterday I thought I saw the darkest clouds
The rain, the hail, the storm, the gale
Kept belting me round
But even from the darkest clouds
The sun came out
lada dadada

Visit Melanie Horsnell page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.