"But You"

She was like a monkey
In an empty dress, naked and alive
Passion in a broken jar
She had trouble with the top

Nobody made her feel
As sexy or silly as you
Nobody made her feel
She could have the world if she wanted to

But you la la la la la
La la la la la
But you la la la la la
La la

She was always all alone
Never lonely, never said she was
Margarine taxis driving past
More interesting than the local bus

Nobody understood
Her mumblings or scribbles in books
Nobody understood
The feathered hats or the silly shoes

But you la la la la la
La la la la la
But you la la la la la
La la

But you la la la la la
La la la la la
But you la la la la la
La la

She'll write you love songs
While you cook the tea
You'll make the bed
And let her happily dream

Nobody makes her feel

As sexy or silly as you
Nobody makes her feel
She can have the world if she wants to

But you la la la la la
La la la la la la
But you la la la la la
La la

But you la la la la la
La la la la la la
But you la la la la la
La la
