Now I'm falling everafter
Now I'm falling even faster
Told you when I wrote those letters
That I thought I could do better
There's no way that you can save me
Would not want you to anyway
Embrace Darkness from light I stray
Moon is my Sun, Night is my day.
Come now Dark clouds, blood spilled on battle grounds.
Come now Dark clouds, destroy life and what surrounds.
You, you and I together we can die
You, you and I forever we can die.
Once upon a time I told myself I wouldn't cry
I told myself I wouldn't die
I told myself I was alright
Now I'm ever fading into night
Away from light,
I close my eyes and join the fight, I hold on tight
I'm still alive
This pain is still alive (still alive)
You, you and I together we can die
You, you and I forever we can die
Follow me there through the dark
We drown in despair
Bury me there
I'm left without air
Once upon a time I told myself I wouldn't cry
I told myself I wouldn't die
I told myself I was alright
Now I'm ever fading into night
Away from light,
I close my eyes and join the fight, I hold on tight
I'm still alive
This pain is still alive (still alive)
You, you and I together we can die
You, you and I forever we can die
