You wanted to be like every Bitch on T.V.
So hollow and selfish
Materialistic drama queen

I never wanted to see you so misguided
I never wanted to be the one who exposed you

You wanted to be the next hallowed celebrity
How sad it must be to know you'll amount to nothing

I never wanted to see you so misguided
I never wanted to be the one who exposed you

Damn right I'll expose you
You're so starved for attention
I guess your Mother's to blame
For not wanting you in the first place

Damn right I'll expose you
You're obsessed with fame and fortune
So starved for attention
I guess your Mother's to blame
For not wanting you in the first place
I can't really blame her
Look at the fuckin' piece of shit she made

I never wanted to see you so misguided
I never wanted to be the one who exposed you
