English Translation

In any case, what can I possibly do?
What can I do to change the reality of this confined garden?

I haven't even lived through half of my life yet
I oppose and I embrace
Experiences are unconsciously tattooed onto me

When I'm in serious trouble
Challenges also grab at me
I was able to see my existence for the first time
Towards a huge field, somewhere bigger and deeper
I can only go to a world which exceeds expectations

Tell me the meaning of "power"
I wonder if it's something I can go through
Or even if I devote myself
Can I protect the things which I must protect?

Clouds of dust whip up in the savannas of gazelles
Until the winds die down, they must remain inside

People continue to walk
Just to live
I move on as the incomplete data is re-written
It seems I've started walking alone in the wilderness
Until I become more confident I want to live up to myself

When I'm in serious trouble
Challenges also grab at me
I was able to see my existence for the first time
Towards a huge field, somewhere bigger and deeper
I can only go to a world which exceeds expectations

I want to know more about myself
