"Little Too Clean"

Thought I heard you screaming
And pulling out your hair
Furious and steaming, a state upon your stare
Don't you know dirt will find you and Dirt reminds you that Dirt will always be there, it's only Dirt around you and dirt surrounds you and Follows you everywhere
Here's a dirty joke, man, filled with filth and smut
The heart of it, it sparkles, the more it can corrupt
Don't you know, dirt can't hurt you
I'm truly certain, usually washes out Don't you know, rain will wash out the Stain and all of your, pain will work itself out Work it out, 'fraid you've lost your innocence
To some-odd social scene, you're right on top
But you've been replaced, by a shiny new machine And dirt keeps following you, and you don't know what it means
You're a little too clean, a little too clean, a little too clean
One day dirt will bury you and you will understand

There is nothing much more than the ground on which you stand

Don't you know dirt will find you and

Dirt reminds you that dirt will always be there

It's only dirt around you and

Dirt surrounds you and follows you everywhere

'Fraid you've lost your innocence, to some-odd social scene

You're right on top, but you've been replaced

By a shiny new machine and dirt keeps following you

And you don't know what it means, you're a little too
clean

A little too clean, a little too clean
