Shipwreck sailors searching for some fools gold

They're the local drunken boys

Been out drinking all night feeling alright

We watch them kill each other in a fight

Ship of fools, drunken hearts

Making yet another new start

Ain't it hard to play that part

When you've got a drunken heart

I can't change the world by complaining

You can't change it with a kiss

Be no concentrating contemplating

No time to find out what we miss

Ship of fools ..
