

American Hi-Fi "Black Satellite"

Quicksilver and wax
You don't have to ask
Black satellite

And I'm okay
But every time you call
I can't hear a sound
So I'll try to stay
But when I feel a wave
I'm already gone

Quicksilver and wax
You don't have to ask
Black satellite

Just when I'm starting to crash
I'll fast forward back
Black satellite

Feet where I stand
But everything's the same
And watch me walk away
And something's wrong
You're nothing like before
And I'm already gone

Quicksilver and wax
You don't have to ask
Black satellite

Just when I'm starting to crash
I fast forward back
Black satellite

But I feel the same
I'll get it straight
And no more to say
I'll get it straight
Back to nowhere

Quicksilver and wax
You don't have to ask

Black satellite

Just when I'm starting to crash
I'll reach you at last
Black satellite

I think I'm starting to crash at last
I think I'm starting to crash
I think I'm starting to crash at last
I think I'm starting to crash
