Pirate satellite transmission
A truth is power if you listen
So listen

With radiation low
This ghost becomes my skin and bones
Our future lies in sound and visions
Collision

This is our time to shine
I feel us breaking free
Start static on a chain reaction
We can't fight the frequency

This is a new day rising
I feel it coming on
Detonate, detonate the signal
Transmission turn me on

Silence, silver constellations
Feel the night above the nations
We're waiting

Surrender to the sky
A flick of flame before we die
Future fire never burn out
Don't burn out

This is our time to shine
I feel us breaking free
Start static on a chain reaction
We can't fight the frequency

This is a new day rising
I feel it coming on
Detonate, detonate the signal
Transmission turn me on

Hold on to this sunrise
We all want a better life
Hold on to this sunrise
We all want a better life

This is our time to shine
I feel it breaking free
