Here I stand
With lines drawn in the sand
On each side there's an ocean
Staring out to see the lights as they pull me in

It's brings me close to home
I start to swim alone
The stillness of the sea
Comes crashing at my feet

I try to watch the sky for signs of a new life
I try to stay with what I know

I don't wanna follow sorrow down
I don't wanna live a life without
The past is over now

I don't wanna ever let you down
I don't wanna die, I don't know how
I hope you'll stick around
We're lost until we're found

I had that dream
Where I just can't wake up
I'm standing on the edge of my little world
I'm filled with silent sounds and bliss

With little to believe
I think I found the words
A story to be heard
With every whisper

I try to watch the skies for signs of a new life
There's so much that we don't know
I don't wanna follow sorrow down
I don't wanna live a life without
The past is over now

I don't wanna ever let you down
I don't wanna die, I don't know how
I hope you'll stick around

You never know, you're high or low
There is a lot I've got to learn
You start so fast, you're never last
Thinking the time was mine to burn

You never know, you're high or low
There is a lot I've got to learn
You start so fast, you're never last

I don't wanna follow sorrow down
I don't wanna
The past is over now

I don't wanna ever let you down
I don't wanna die, I don't know how
I hope you'll stick around
You're lost until you're found

Oh, you're lost until you're found
Oh, you're lost until you're found
Oh, you're lost until you're found
Oh
