I'll do everything but you're not that way
I'm lost around you
And you'll do everything with the same old lies
When I can't even try

Yeah, you get me high, I'm feeling so low
How far will you let me go?
Yeah, you get me high, I'm feeling so low
I'm knocked down by the vertigo

Nothing means a thing when you're cold and gray
I fall behind you
I'll make the same mistakes with the same old lies
When I can't even fight

Yeah, you get me high, I'm feeling so low
How far will you let me go?
Yeah, you get me high, I'm feeling so low
I'm knocked down by the vertigo

Yeah, you get me high, I'm feeling so low
How far will you let me go?
Yeah, you get me high, I'm feeling so low
I'm knocked down by the vertigo

Yeah, you get me high, I'm feeling so low
How far will you let me go?
Yeah, you get me high
