"Dream Girl"

There is a girl, for all of us
Who never finds, the one she'll spend her life with
She's always there, but I don't know her name
'Cause she's only in my dreams

Then suddenly, I see her face
And realize, I already have met her
I had a chance, that I didint take
Now she's gone for good

Is this true? I walked away from you
Now I just wish you could come back tomorrow

There is a girl, for all of us
Who never finds, the one you'll spend your life with
She's always there, but I don't know her name
'Cause she's only in my dreams

But suddenly, I see her face
And realize, I already have met her
I had a chance, that I didint take
Now she's gone for good

Is this true? (is this true?)
I walked away from you (I walked away from you)
Now I just wish you could come back tomorrow
I wish that you could come back - yeaah

I can't go on like this
I wish that you were mine once again x 8
