"Thirty Dirty Women"

Thirty dirty women, have made a mess of my life
Thirty dirty women, have made a mess of my life
Thirty dirty women, none ain't good enough for my wife

My life is bad luck, with losin' on top of that My life is bad luck, and I'm losin' on top of that I'm in so much misery, I'm just like a starvin' cat
(Lord have mercy!)

Thirty dirty women, have worn me down to one last thread
Thirty dirty women, have worm me down to one last
thread
My feet are dragging, and I can't hardly lift my head
