"City On The Hill"

Broken glass - blood felt a crash "Where's the butter baby?"
Hot tin roof - eighty proof - The water's running Somewhere (so much better)
Somewhere (better than us
Somewhere (Sweet love letter)
Somewhere else
I rise up to the city on the hill where the weeds of angry voices die and prisoner honey spills
I rise up to the city on the hill, I'm climbing up for all I'm worth and I guess i always will Black Black Hole -no control dail another number Nobody home - all alone
With the voice of slumber
Somewhere (so much better)
Somewhere (better than us)
Somewhere (sweet love letters)
somewhere else
