Phone calls inside; minute be there
two when tea has grown oh we have shared
in the street
and it's somewhere taking turns back to nowhere

although there are a thousand more you are the one i've been looking for i have a girl; (blah) down and down and leave me in there

if we paid for a final thought after only a few hours i got caught if you know i need you why'd you let me fall?
it beats me but i'm pulling through staring at the walls

oh we have shared
in the street

if you know i need you why'd you let me fall?
staring at the walls
