Somebody said you've asking about me
The hells angels rode in to casper
And found my house empty
Honey, I moved and I'll tell you why
Cause I still believe you're out there
With a head full of meth and ephedrine
If they led you to me would you come back?
Don't tell me you might cause you never will

Eighty miles of pasture and stream
Ogalala, nebraska is still stinging in me
Come on through and I'll tell you why
And I still believe you're out there
Digging through my trash for your photographs
If they led you to me would you come back?
Don't tell me you might Cause you never will
