I miss my partner
And the hands of his I never shook
But felt on my body
And bandages I bled through
I fell in love
With a boy from nowhere
Who you wouldn't know
He lived on a train car
And I cut his throat
Did a seizure come over me like a dream?
Did I leave him in oberlin or mobile?
I'll be sleeping on a riverbank
There's no train back today
To stone mountain
I've always come together all alone
Watching the water

I started walking
And tried to write when I could
But I know I'll fall in love again
As soon as my heart tells me to
I want to be burned
And I kept from water
Cause I had to learn
What it's like to put all of your faith
In someone who's lost
From a ship, stars are woven into the sea
From a streetcar, the laundromats are so still
I'll be sleeping on a riverbank
There's no train back today to stome mountain
I've always come together all alone
Watching the water
