Hook:

Took "impossible" and split it in two,
Now when I meet obstacles I simply introduce myself like,
"Hey, I'm Possible, I'm Possible, I'm Possible
And my bro here is Responsible,
We are Unstoppable and seeing you is optional,
Cause it's crunch time and we lookin like abdominals,
So, the next time you meet an obstacle,
Make plans to shake hands and say, "I'm Possible"

Verse 1:

People can grow old and sink below their life,
Fall down the drain-age pipe
Spewing sewage through self-selected strife,
But not me, down there is not a goal,
Bound for air I'm aeronautical and not a soul
Can tell me it's not probable, because I'm Possible,
Draped in a cape like Snape, unexpected hero
But everything I do is methodical yea,
Focus like Fonzie on my plan Ayyyyy,
No Plan B to skate away on I stay colorful like crayons
Or a light shot through the middle of a prism,
Some days I am blue but I'm remedied by rhythm
Or melodic medicine, theatric therapy,
It's all the same to me just helpin me to gain clarity
So I'm fairly aware, that I, carry a stare, quite like Jerry cause I barely care that Tom is making bombs upstairs,
Nah, when the blast comes I'll be prepared,
Stand square as I boldly declare I

Verse 2:

Experiment to experience,
I use my thoughts to stick in what is fresh,
Yea I spear-mint,
Cause I get a little sick of traditional Ideas that ain't transitional, I'm stickin with the principle
That what's invisible is invincible, indivisible
Cause I can't divide what is divine,
I strive to derive the timeless wine from inside
To enjoy the fruits of my vine,
Infinity lies within me but it never lies,
So I listen for the truth and it tells me that I'm Possible, philosophical, anthropological,
Gotta keep a sense of humor as I rock online,
That's dot-comical,
Smile when I'm meeting these obstacles cause I'm Possible,
Defiling the style of thinking in terms of topical,
Yea, you gotta treat it at the root,
To grow and flourish like the trees so tropical,
Meeting obstacles starts with how you see yourself
And inner wealth is a product of tellin yourself,
Â”I'm PossibleÂ”

Bridge:

It started with a Dare to Dream and it came true,
Now I'm working to be the best I can,
As I separate my vision from the world's view,
And keep asserting that I see things as I am,
And you know what that is, it's in the title,
Potential is no longer waiting for my arrival,
I craft weapons and armor like a black-Smith,
No Will but I still Pursue your Happyness
And the fact is that I
