Just hear me out,
It wasn't very long ago.
Never had much,
And I always needed more.
Now I stand frustrated when I look at things today,
Before I ever got it, everything was taken away.

The price for freedom got too high.
When you've always had it, nobody wants to buy.

Hang on, Big Brother,
who can we believe?
Hang on, Big Brother,
You're taking my money, but you can't buy my dignity.

Hang on, Big Brother,
We can not conceive,
Hang on, Big Brother,
You're taking my money but you can't buy my dignity.

Saved up my money,
bought a little place to live.
Saw my ship come in
Now's it's leaking like a sieve
Now I'm on a ledge,
Wondering how this could be.
I'm headed for foreclosure in the name of democracy.

The price for freedom got too high.
When you've always had it, nobody wants to buy.

Hang on, Big Brother,
who can we believe?
Hang on, Big Brother,
You're taking my money, but you can't buy my dignity.
Hang on, Big Brother,
We can not conceive,
Hang on, Big Brother,
You're taking my money but you can't buy my dignity.

I never saw it coming,

Nor the writing on the wall.
Believing in the dream,
A setup for the fall.
Now I stand frustrated when I look at things today,
Before I ever got it, everything was taken away.

The price for freedom got too high.
When you've always had it, nobody wants to buy.

Hang on, Big Brother,
who can we believe?
Hang on, Big Brother,
You're taking my money, but you can't buy my dignity.
Hang on, Big Brother,
We can not conceive,
Hang on, Big Brother,
You're taking my money but you can't buy my dignity.

Hang on, Big Brother,
Hang on, Big Brother.

Hang on Hang on
