Written by Glen Burtnick and Sheay Peiken

Performed by Lea Salonga and Brad Kane

L:

Be still, my heart

Lately its mind is on its own

It would go far and wide

Just to be near you

B:

Even the stars

Shine of it bright I've noticed

When you're close to me

L:

Still it remains a mystery

Chorus 1:

Anyone who's seen us

Knows what's going on between us

It doesn't take a genius

To read between the lines

And it's not just wishful thinking

Or only me who's dreaming

I know what these are symptoms of

We could be in love

L:

I ask myself why

I sleep like a baby through the night

Maybe it helps to know

You'll be there tomorrow

B:

Don't open my eyes

I wake from the spell I'm under

Makes me wonder how

L:

Tell me how I could live without you now

Chorus 2:

And what about the laughter

The happy ever after

Like voices of sweet angels

Calling out our names

And it's not just wishful thinking

Or only me who's dreaming

I know what these are symptoms of

We could be in love

Bridge:

B:

All my life I have dreamed of this
But I could not see your face

L:

Don't ask why two such distant stars
Can fall right into place

(Repeat chorus 1)

Oh, it doesn't take a genius
To know what these are symptoms of
We could be...
We could be...
We could be in love
We could be in love
