[Spinderella]

CHORUS

Time is short grab ahold
Live a life young or old
Go for some every dream
Dreams become reality when you believe
Do you believe?

You want what everybody else got Caught up in the madness 'cause focused you're not
But who's to blame when every day's the same?
Days passin' by and nobody knows your name
But this is your space your time your place
Got no time to sit and waste
Too quick is the pace that holds around you
But you don't have a clue 'cause you didn't take control Grab ahold of something new Lo and behold this laziness is gettin' real old You be the only one standin' in the cold with the blindfold
Live it up before you leave
Make your dreams realities 'cause you best believe
CHORUS

You gotta keep buildin' for your moms and your pops
For your family and your peoples on the block
Children are here robbin' one another
Mother, father, sister, brother, daughter, son
Doesn't anyone care for 'bout the gift of life anymore?
Work, wars, and famine, purse snatchin', back stabbin'
for the cash
Maybe playin' fascist, evil is a passion
But God is everlastin'
You should never ask Him, "Why me?"
Be humble, follow in His footsteps and you will never stumble
'cause no one else is you but you
Believe in yourself and make you dreams be true
Believe in yourself and all your dreams be true

CHORUS (repeats to fade)
