You fucking liar, if your not now than you never were.

I guess my morals have dug my own grave
I even explained myself on the first date.
You said, "It was cool" and that, "it wasn't your thing."
Come summer your acting so differently.

What could it be? Could it be me? No couldn't be, no couldn't be.
No, I shrugged it off, it's just a phase
There was a car crash. And I could not save my life.
From this car crash, and you could not save your...
See this was bothering me and this meant war.
Let's take this once further.

Your sympathy Is not needed.

And I guess my Morals have dug my own grave I even explained myself on the first date.
And I'm so sorry that the tears never came
And I'm so sorry you don't feel the same, as I do.
And I'm so sorry that the tears never came
And I'm so sorry we don't feel the same
