Those buttons on your shirt are going to be undone
They have my name all over them
The wind that blows through the open window
Sends up a shiver down my spine
And I thank God I don't have to wait in line behind
some other other gal
'Cause those girls don't know you like I do

You shake your head to the left, you shake your head to the right
It's better that we spend this day facing west
... they get caught in my hair
I know haven't combed it in a while, but you don't care
I put my feet on top of yours, we'll dance around the room like we own own
The place
And don't kiss me in the darkness

That low howl from the ground is calling us down There is no other sound when you're around and When it's hot out, when it's hot out, I hear your heartbeat from a mile Away
When it's hot out, when it's hot out, I hear your
heartbeat from a mile
Away
'Cause those girls don't know you like I do
'Cause those girls don't know you like I do

Those buttons on your shirt are going to be undone
They have my name all over them
The wind that blows through the open window
Sends up a shiver down my spine
And I thank God I don't have to wait in line behind
some other other gal
'Cause those girls don't know you like I do
And don't kiss me in the darkness
'Cause those girls don't know you like I do
