I've shed these tears a hundred times.
The bottles are broken, my well runs dry.
All these painful words make this much harder.
You have no place here, I've left and so should you,
should you.

These chains that bound me from this place.
Tonight is the last night you will see my face.
These chains that bound me from this place.
Tonight is the last night you will see my face.
Left alone I've wandered in this place all night.
This has to be the only way to make this right.
Surely if I fell from these...

These chains that bound me from this place.
Tonight is the last night you will see my face.
Left alone I've wandered in this place all night.
This has to be the only way to make this right.
Surely if I fell from these...

I've held these tears a hundred times.
The bottles are full and its my time to shine.
Would you believe me if I told you...
It was my time to die.
I've wished for this all night.
So show yourself, I will fight, I will fight.

Come at me with everything with everything you're made of.
Come at with everything you've got.

Come at me with everything with everything you're made of.
Come at with everything you've got.

All my life, I've waited for the day,
When I could just drive.
And get away from this place.
I need to get away from this place.
I know that I am better than this.
I know that I am better than this
