I don't really know how long forever is
But that's how long I'm gonna give my life
Everything I face tries is to tear me down
No, I won't back way from the sacrifice

I won't forget what Your love means to me
You're always there to light my way

When all the lights go down
And the world is crying, no one else around
I wanna be the same man that'll serve You then
Like I serve You now

Let my convictions never change
Oh, let my need for You remain
As real as the moment I was saved
So I will always stand amazed

Sometimes my heart desires such selfish things
When the moment comes, help me to trust
Something better than You have for me
If I could just hold on to You enough

I won't forget what Your love means to me, yeah
You're always there to light my way

When all the lights go down
And the world is crying, no one else around
I wanna be the same man that'll serve You then
Like I serve You now

Let my convictions never change
Oh, let my need for You remain
As real as the moment I was saved
So I will always stand amazed

You will be my strength when I am weak
When I wanna give in and not turn the other cheek
Oh, let this be the prayer that I speak
That I speak

When all the lights go down

And the world is crying, no one else around
I wanna be the same man that'll serve You then
Like I serve You now

Let my convictions never change
Oh, let my need for You remain
As real as the moment I was saved
So I will always stand amazed
