Everybody's got something they have to leave behind
One regret from yesterday that just seems to grow with time

There's no use looking back or wondering
How it could be now Or might of been Oh this i know but still i can't find find ways to let u goooooooooo.
NO NO NO

I never had a dream come true till the day that i found u even though i pretend that i moved on apart of me will always be apart of me will always beeeeeeee withhhhhh youuuuuuuuuuuuuuu.
