I will give praise to You, alabar al senor
With all my heart, I sing to You, adoracion
Now that my heart belongs to You
I want to worship You in truth
I will give praise to You, alabar al senor

You give me songs in the night
You give me melodies of peace
Of joy, of love and of life
Under Your name, this is where I hide
And in You alone, oh, Lord, I have life

And I will give praise to You, alabar al senor
With all my heart, I sing to You, adoracion
Now that my heart belongs to You
I want to worship You in truth
And I will give praise to You, alabar al senor

No greater love has ever been
Than when a man would give his life to save a friend
You are that man and the friend, he is me
So I will thank You, Lord with every breath I breathe

And I will give praise to You, alabar al senor
With all my heart, I sing to You, adoracion
Now that my heart belongs to You
I want to worship You in truth
I will give praise to You, alabar al senor

Oh, now that my heart belongs to You
I want to worship You in truth
I will give praise to You, al senor

Oh, now that my heart belongs to You
I want to worship You in truth
I will give praise to You, alabar al senor
