Don't let me down
I'm about to go on strike
And leave my tears at sea

Don't let me down
I'm about to lose my mind
And it's clear to me

That you started something
And you've got nothing to lose
But I am hanging
Like a pair of tied shoes

Don't let me down
You know I'd die for you
And still celebrate

Don't let me down
You know my life is blue
Without you cherry on my cake

Don't let me down
Or you know that I will be
The mean old lady down the street

The one that everyone is scared to see
The one who pities sympathy?
