Don't stand too close
I might ask you to stay forever
Don't hold my hand
I might never, ever let it go

'Cause no one told me not to fall in love
No one gave me such advice
And now as I'm packing my bags
I'll have to send my tears in oversize

Don't dream with me
I might never wake up again
Don't think of what this could be
If for you this is the end

And no one told me not to fall in love
No one gave up such advice
And now as I'm packing my bags
I'll have to send my tears in oversize,
Goodbye
