It's been so long but still
I think of you each spring
Sometimes it rains here
But all I want near
Is your smile

I've tried to socialize
Meet up with other guys
But somehow each man
Lacks something you had
So I would say goodbye

Any chance
You would come back tomorrow
Any chance
You would come back today
Dinner's ready
No one's home
So we'll be all alone
Just tell me that you wont take long

I'll forget you somehow
Find love again but now
I'll sit and wait here
'Cause maybe you're near and you wont take long
