Bigger isn't better
Taller isn't braver
Stronger isn't always wise

Smaller isn't necessarily the lesser Guts can come in any size

Lady luck can favor
Just a little shaver
Over one who's 6-foot-3

Brains in any tussle
Mop the floor with muscle
Bet your life I'm glad I'm me

(Chorus:)
Bigger isn't keener
Larger isn't bolder
Higher might be low inside
When you need to lean upon a friendly shoulder
Narrow's just as good as wide
See the mighty lion sittin there and crying bitten by a tiny flea
Mammoth was colossal what's he now? A fossil!
Bet your life I'm glad I'm me

What strong and hope they lag along
Get brains and heart
That handsome hunk might be a Lilliputian medley, Proven consequently...
Though he shows his shoulders twice as big as boulders
If his brain's a tiny pea
When your in a pickle
He ain't worth a nickel
Bet your life I'm...Bet your life I'm glad I'm me

(Spoken)
Ladies and Gentlemen together for the first time
Mister PT Barnum's two star attractions
General Top Dog and Jumbo!

That's some elephant!

Aw, isn't the little guy cute?

Let me see, let me see!

BRANDON, get back here!

I'm OK Mom!

(Back to Singing)

The dinosaur's no more, the dear old dodo's dead,

But right there on that floor some ants will still be treadin after Armageddon

Bet there isn't a hero, weight is less than zero

Height ain't worth a hoot in hell

Show me any hunk of man to match the spunk of

Tiny Tim or Little Nell

Giants look so awesome folks are scared to cross em'

None the less I guarantee

Small as Yankee Doodle if he's in the moodle beat the whole

Caboodle using just his noodle...

Bet your life I'm glad I'm ME!!!
