Now in this world a wise man said, there is a girl for every man
A girl who'll stay by him all the way and always do the best she can
To give their love a strong foundation and keep it ever green
To always be a perfect lover and let no other come between
To always be a perfect lover and let no other come
between

But nobody ever told Sandy, one way love ain't worth
the time
But nobody ever told Sandy and Sandy broke this heart
of mine

When I took Sandy out that night, I didn't mean to loose my heart
But with my arms around her tight, she made each kiss a work of art
Our love was heaven while it last but it didn't last too long
Just like the rain, my tears are falling
I keep on calling but Sandy's gone
Just like the rain, my tears are falling
I keep on calling but Sandy's gone

But nobody ever told Sandy, one way love ain't worth
the time
But nobody ever told Sandy and Sandy broke this heart
of mine
But nobody ever told Sandy, one way love ain't worth
the time
But nobody ever told Sandy and Sandy broke this heart
of mine.
