Was flying high
Now falling slow
It was hard to find
The road I know
So I will try
To lift my feet
And work out who
I should be

But I'm not broken, I'm not broken
I'm not broken
I'm not broken, I'm not broken
I'm not broken

That girl I had
Is now a passing name
Not like the past
When we felt the same
Times have changed
But Mostly me
I've forgot your smile
It's killing me

But I'm not broken, I'm not broken
I'm not broken
I'm not broken, I'm not broken
I'm not broken
