FOREVER YOUNG

Help me get myself back into shape I need the hand of loving Help me re-arrange my foolish pride cos underneath there hides a gentleman inside Who wants to stay at home with you and keep you satisfied Help me get myself back on the road cos you know where i'm going Back amongst the feeling once again from the stormy side of winter came a friend How can a love as true as this ever end, with time

Forever young
deep inside the rivers of our dreams is where we'll always be Forever young
in lasting love from time the body's free to dance eternally
Forever young

Look into the deepest crashing waves and tell me there's no stranger Stranger than the beauty of the sea it holds the memory of the world's own history right now I just need the water crashing over me Tell me once again I can't pretend I understand the meaning of the word that's spoken by a few saying we must all repent for what we do I don't care if I'm a sinner when I'm loving you, the sun shines

Forever youngâ€¦!
