Oh, yeah!
See all the kids on the side street.
Hangin' 'round in their cars.
They're out makin' memories, yeah!
See the girls in their summer clothes.
All the boys all rough and tough.
They just can't get enough, oh no.
They're just growing up.
And they can't get around it.
They're just growing up - face the fact.
I'm so glad that I found out I must be growing up.
I never thought I'd want to settle down.
But her love just gets to me.
Kinda feels like the real thing, yeah.
I'm feeling guilty about my friends.
Oh, they all say how I've been changing.
I'm just bored 'cause this old town's got me down, oh,
yea.
I'm just growing up.
Uh! I can't get around it, no.
Growing up - face the fact
I'm so glad that I found out I must be growing up.
Feels like I'm winding down, or breaking loose.
I've put together a new plan, I'm stickin' to it.
I'm not tired, I'm just bored to come. Oh man!
I'm just growing up.
No I can't get around it.
Guess I'm growing up, face the fact.
I'm so glad that I found out, I must be... I'm just
Growing up, yeah.
We just can't get around it, oh no.
Growing up, face the fact
Yea, I'm glad that I found out I must ge g-g-g
Growing up, yeah!
No, you can't get around it, no.
Growing up, face the fact.
I'm so glad that I found out I must be growing up.
