I want you

We're looking for the answers
Maybe there are none
Maybe it's time to celebrate
Close your eyes and have some fun
Someday there will be no stars
No sun up above
I care for this, like more than life, more than life
But right now I need your love
She's so cool, but

I want you

Don't let them talk of power
I've heard it all before
It don't take long to realise
It's the cause of this bloody war
And it'll take a revolution
To clear all this pollution
We're in such a mess and I must confess
Right now I need your tenderness
She's so cool, but

I want you

It's always good to meet you
Though your sometimes not a friend
Wish I could do anything get you feeling good again
And I can't remember when you
Looked so sad and blue
And it's easy to be beautiful
But I can't forget i'm over you
She's so cool, but

I want you
