Yeah, there's so much that you can't see
So many things that you can be
Your in the black, so you can be free
So many places you can hide
So many things you never tried
No need to know who's on your side
I got secrets in the night
And I've got confidence, in the night
And I've got a chance, in the night
No one cares, who is who
If you believe it, it must be true
At last you, can be you
I've got secrets in the night
And I've got confidence, in the night
And I've got a chance, in the night
{guitar solo}
It happens, slowly
The way we grow old, never knowing
Darkness fell, slow and easy
As tho nothing was wrong
{guitar solo}
Lost, in a dream
But things are not the way they seem anymore
We've all been there b-4
How ever the darker it is, the better I see
I see thru you, I see beyond me
I see black with color, I see the key
And I've got secrets in the night
And I've got confidence, in the night
And I've got a chance, in the night
(oh)
