i walk towards the light coz i've been in the dark i've been told that i'm loved i've been hurt since
last night
i walk down the road
i go across the rivers making silly mistakes i go on but you're always there for me like last night i was going through pain and i had loads of sorrow my heart was beating for you i was waiting for you but you cheated on me

last night

i was over with but you wanted me to move on i wanted to end it here but you kept on dragging me ahead i trusted you blindly and you broke my heart you played with my feelings i really dint know what to do i was so hurt and it was paining so badly i was so hurt and i was paining like hell yeah yeah !!! i was sick of your lies i was tired of being lied about i gave it up i gave you up i gave my love and my heart stopped beating i was over with it i lost completely my first and last love woah!
