There's a line, for every lover
In the makeup on your face
There's a look in your eye, says you realize your fate
And you've a mind, to rediscover, tho we're half way thru the race
And the neon lights keep calling you, to this place
{Chorus}
Run for your life, girl
The band has packed away
You better run for your life, girl get away
Run for your life, girl
The band has moved on, you'll be runnin', for your life from now on Well your nights were filled with laughter
Now your days are fallin' rain
And your wondering when those stars are gonna shine again
You've got photographs to remind you, of all the faces that you knew
But I'm sure they've got no time, to think of you {Chorus}
Hey Little Miss Lonely, tho your world is falling apart You've got a feeling inside you, and loving in your heart
Hey, Little Miss Lonely, don't you waste your life away
You put the bad times behind you, tomorrow's a brand new day
(Yeah!)
{Chorus}
..... Miss Lonely, There'll be better days, and you can find the way Ohhhhhh, Miss Lonely, there'll be better ways, and you can find them, someday {Chorus to fade}
