Yeah

Oh, looked so easy, baby

Out there on your own

It sure looked so easy

Out there on my own

It's funny how the world looks

When you're almost grown, almost grown, almost grown

Don't worry about nothin'

You got nothin' to lose

Well things can stay that easy, baby

Depending on the road you choose, the road you choose, the road you choose

Standin' at the crossroads

Standin' at the crossroads, baby

Same old crossroads

Same old crossroads, yeah
