Here or there, above or below it's always the same force which prevails One must be unreal and surreal to rise above the fear of isolation one must accept exclusion becoming stronger to face fate Day after day
stone after stone
from disillusion to disillusion defeat to defeat
escaping death for another death I've built a temple within myself where on my knees I wait the day
Born under Saturn
d'Ã©chirer les cieux
Born under Saturn
sur terre rappeler Dieu
There is but a little time and the road is still long become who you are, deny who you know...
Day after day
stone after stone
from disillusion to disillusion
defeat to defeat
escaping death for another death
I've built a temple within myself
where on my knees I wait the day
Born under Saturn
d'Ã©chirer les cieux
Born under Saturn
sur terre rappeler Dieu
